N.B. The accreditation validated by the Association Chalabre en Sérénade does not guarantee the authorization of groups or artists in concerning interviews, photos or videos. Whenever possible, we will try to prepare interview requests and other requests for authorization before the festival. In all cases, journalists and independent photographers will be submitted the instructions and restrictions given by the artists.

Your contact person will contact you at the festival to provide you with all the necessary information

Annex to the application for accreditation

The Association welcomes with pleasure several media and independent photographers accredited on each edition

For the smooth running of the festival and the good understanding between everyone, we inform you of the following points:

1/ Withdrawal of accreditations

If you are granted accreditation, you are informed beforehand by the person responsible for the reception. Simply present yourself at the artist reception a pass will be given to you.

2/ Access to the spaces

The pass for persons accredited to the 2020 festival gives access during the 5 days exclusively on the festival site during the opening hours to the public.

Access to the boxes is strictly prohibited. The catering of the festival and the volunteer area are reserved for volunteers working on the site

3/ Access to the front of the stage

The previews are accessible to photographers and videographers accredited subject to authorization by the artists, and according to the instructions given by the artists or their representatives

On the other hand, the sets and the backstage are strictly reserved for artists and the technique

4/ Requests for interviews

All requests for interviews, for artists or for organizers, must be sent to us before the festival via the accreditation application form

Whenever possible, we try to prepare requests for interviews in advance of the festival

5/ Shooting instructions and authorizations/ recording

As often, restrictions on photo shoots or stage recordings are imposed by artists

Before the festival begins, each artist or representative is contacted and informed of the presence of accredited media and photographers. We are trying to obtain authorizations and instructions before the festival.

All available information will then be communicated to you live on site and before each concert by the manager.

6/ Catering

Numerous catering stalls with a varied range are installed on the festival site

Please make arrangements for on-site catering.

7/ Return of media and/or post-festival photo coverage

The Association would like, for its archives and for an instant promotion, to have knowledge of the articles, photos, videos, broadcasts and publications concerning the event. Please send us a copy or a link to your publications as soon as they are published, we will in turn relay them via our social networks.
